

PARTNERS FOR A BETTER LIFE

An Open Letter to America's Hard Working Families

Today, millions of hard-working families struggle to survive on low-paying full-time jobs or low-wage part-time jobs.

Erratic hours and scheduling make it impossible for workers to control their lives.

Trade deals ship good jobs overseas while offering false promises of better jobs tomorrow.

Irresponsible corporations like Walmart treat their employees and their families as if they were dispensable.

Income inequality is at record levels as CEO's earn tens of millions, while workers struggle to pay their bills.

The question that must be asked is how long can this nation endure when so few have so much, and so many have so little?

For the sake of a better America, the time has come for real change.

Real change that will improve the lives of millions of hard-working retail workers like those at Walmart, and other retailers that follow Walmart's low wage model.

So our message to retail workers, and to all hard-working men and women, is a simple one—you and your family deserve better.

By joining together, we can help you fight for it.

For those retail workers who have questions, concerns, or even doubts, please reach out to us at abetterlife@ufcw.org.

We are determined to earn your trust and support.

Let's prove that by becoming partners we can change your life, and the lives of millions of retail workers for the better.

Because when all is said and done, no one in America should have to fight for a better life alone.
